

Markus Schlesinger is a vienna-based guitarist, who has played fingerstyle for many years.

He is not only a musician with heart and soul but also a master of his craft. With his acoustic guitar, his smoky voice and his contagious humour, an evening full of musical highlights and diverse entertainment is guaranteed.

His varied program ranges from ingenious original compositions and jazz arrangements, to blues and fingersyle arrangements of well-kown songs, spiced up by entertaining anecdotes and a lively interaction with the audience.
